

This event is older than two months and is no longer active.
Some links older than two months could be broken.

REPORT YOUR NEWS
Click here to post a new related report

HNIs eye non-equity assets abroad

SOURCE: The Economic Times Ask : Norway | Mar 09, 2009

VIEWS: 0 0 0

Though there are apprehensions about the US economy, investors are still comfortable investing in government treasury bonds of that country," said ASK Wealth Advisors wealth management head Maneesh Kumar. "Investors still consider US treasuries as one of the safest investment avenues.

SHARE: tweet

Reach Credibility FLAG

READ MORE: real estate, ASK Investment Holdings

MORE NEWS FROM: ASK : NORWAY

RELATED ALLVOICES CONTRIBUTIONS

Connecticut Real Estate Investors Association (CT REIA) Announces All ...

By: ctreia
About 1 Month Ago

NEWS STORIES

Financial Times: Lehman buy-out house reborn

NEWS SOURCE: Androscoffin News | about 1 year ago

While many institutional investors are exiting their troubled private equity holdings, Johann Rupert, the South African billionaire, joined forces with managers from Lehman Brothers Merchant Banking Partners to buy it out of the bank.

ASK Inves lines up Rs 500-cr RE fund

NEWS SOURCE: The Economic Times | about 1 year ago

At a time when property prices have been moving southwards and experts are predicting a tough period ahead, private equity firm ASK Investment Holdings has launched its Rs 500-crore real estate fund. ASK's management thinks that the real estate...